Consumers present: Daniel Romero, Tomas Sanchez, J. D. Weathers and Jerome Lucero addressed the Board with the following:

1. Daniel Romero - Addressed the Board concerning the recent lawsuit filed against our Coop by a trustee and a couple of other consumers. We as consumers have to pay this litigation bill out of our pockets. Board member is fighting this Coop and Board should hold him accountable for this. What is this Board going to do about this?
2. Tomas Sanchez – Has trouble with a trustee suing the Coop – with that mentality, has no business being a board member.
3. J. D. Weathers – Concerned with the recent litigation and what it cost our Coop – costs all of us as consumers. He also suggested hiring a firm to look at our by-laws so that this type of litigation doesn’t happen again due to our by-laws not being clear.
4. Jerome Lucero – Agreed with other’s concerns and stated that if things continue as they are, it didn’t matter if by-laws are changed.

There was some discussion concerning the meeting. Diego Quintana stated that this was an invalid and illegal meeting because it was done against all rules and regulations. Diego Quintana asked Robert Baca, who chaired this meeting, if he had called for the meeting and under what authority had he done that. CEO Low advised Diego Quintana that there was need to schedule this emergency meeting because the budget had to be approved due to CoBank and RUS needing this approval.
